

Saxon Wood School

Weekly Newsletter – 14th December 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Here we are at the end of another successful term and what will be our last newsletter in 2023!

We have had a fantastic term this year. There have been lots of 'awe and wonder' moments, especially during our two Christmas productions this week. The children were outstanding. We have captured some wonderful moments on camera, which can be found on our school website. Well done to our wonderful children.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank my excellent team of staff they work tirelessly each and every day, often going above and beyond their role profiles to ensure the needs of every child are met.

I have been extremely touched by the lovely comments from parents too. It isn't often I get a chance to speak to parents face to face because a lot of our children are brought in on transport. However, during our Christmas productions on Monday and Tuesday, I really was touched by your kind comments and I send a heartfelt thanks to you.

It truly is an honour and privilege to lead Saxon Wood School!

All classes worked extremely hard this week to deliver an excellent Christmas production to their parents.

There have been lots of Christmassy arts and crafts created in classrooms.

The Children thoroughly enjoyed their Christmas dinner and party day with a visit from a very special person bringing lots of presents in his sack!

This morning the Children are enjoying a festive cinema experience.

Today you will receive your child's end of term report. This reflects just how hard they have been working. There are lots of wonderful photographs which capture the fantastic learning over this term. I am sure you will enjoy seeing the wonderful achievements you child has made.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your families a very Happy Christmas on behalf of the children, staff and governors. I hope you all enjoy special moments with your families, making wonderful memories.

I look forward to welcoming the children back to school in the new year!
